1. Most Chinese Communist political workers who have been in Hong Kong were ordered to return to Canton in the middle of December to receive instructions. These persons began returning during the first week of January accompanied by many others.*
2. These political workers have begun to gather information of military and other anti-Communist activity in Hong Kong, to subvert the Hong Kong police, especially those of Cantonese origin, to increase control of labor unions, and to gather Communist sympathizers.
3. They plan to incite civil disturbance, assassinate anti-Communist guerrilla leaders, and conduct other terrorist activities.

25X1A * [REDACTED] Comment. Although the [REDACTED] first act of the returning political workers was to arrange for their families to return to the mainland from Hong Kong and that by 12 January these families were moving out, a fairly reliable Chinese observer in Hong Kong notes that a large team of newly arriving political workers from Hankow were bringing their families with them. 25X1C

25X1A  [REDACTED] Comment. [REDACTED] the workers are not succeeding in subverting Hong Kong policemen who come originally from Shantung. 25X1C
